

Library's short guide to Chicago Manual format for print sources:

In the following sets of references, the foot/endnote appears first (indented), followed by its corresponding bibliography entry (hanging indentation). . . .

Entries are single-spaced to save space (and pages if students want to copy this document). Professors, however, may prefer double-spaced citations, so check with them.

Table of Contents

Books by One Author	2
Books by Two and Three Authors	3
Books by More Than Three Authors	4
Edited Books	4-5
Edited and Translated Works of Authors	5
Books in Editions Other Than the First	6
Books in Series	7
Multivolume Works (Sets and Individual Volumes)	7-10
Essays in an Author's Own Book and in a Book Edited by Someone Else	10
Dictionaries and Encyclopedias	11
Magazine Articles	12-13
Journal Articles	13-14
Newspaper Articles	15
Correspondence	16
Unpublished Interviews and Personal Communications	16
Theses and Dissertations	17
Secondary Sources of Quotations (One Source Quoted in Another)	17
Book Reviews	18-19
Sample Bibliography	20-21
Subsequent References (Shortened References and Ibid.)	22-23